By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Distribution of Prizes taken from the Subjects of the United Provinces subsequent to the Fifteenth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, the Date of His Majesty's Order in Council for granting General Reprizals against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the said United Provinces.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council, dated the Fifteenth Day of September last, We have ordered that General Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the United Provinces, so that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissionated by Letters of Marque or General Reprizals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to the said United Provinces, or any Persons being Subjects thereof, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the said United Provinces, and bring the same to Judgmen in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within our Dominions; We, being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects, who may have lawfully seized any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last, or who shall hereafter seize any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, and having declared in Council Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes and Reprizals of all such Ships and Goods as aforesaid, which, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September, 1795, have been, or hereafter, during the present Hostilities, shall be seized as aforesaid, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken as aforesaid, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last, or which shall hereafter be taken as aforesaid, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to Our further Pleasure) but subject to the Payment of all such or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that is to say, That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprizals, (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners aforesaid) may be sold and disposed poſed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters and others to whom ſuch Letters of Marque and Reprizals are granted, for their own Uſe and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before. And We do hereby further order and direct, that the neat Produce of all Prizes, which are or ſhall be taken as aforeſaid by any of Our Ships or Veſſels of War, ſhall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders and other Commiſſioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines and Soldiers on Board Our ſaid Ships and Veſſels at the Time of the Capture, and that ſuch Prizes may be lawfully ſold and diſpoſed of by them and their Agents, after the ſame ſhall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwiſe.

The Diſtribution ſhall be made as follows; the Whole of the neat Produce being firſt divided into Eight equal Parts.

The Captain or Captains of any of Our ſaid Ships or Veſſels of War, who ſhall be actually on Board at the Taking of any Prize, ſhall have Three Eighth Parts; but in caſe any ſuch Prize ſhall be taken by any of Our Ships or Veſſels of War under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on Board, or directing and aſſiſting in the Capture, ſhall have One of the ſaid Three Eighth Parts, the ſaid One Eighth Part to be paid to ſuch Flag or Flag Officers in ſuch Proportions and ſubject to ſuch Regulations as are hereinafter mentioned.

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants and Maſter on Board, ſhall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongſt them; but that every Phyſician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, ſhall, in the Diſtribution of Prizes which are or ſhall be taken as aforeſaid by the Ships in which he ſhall ſerve, or in which ſuch Ship's Company ſhall be entitled to ſhare, be claſſed with the Sea Lieutenants with reſpect to the ſaid One Eighth Part, and be allowed to ſhare equally with them, provided ſuch Phyſician be actually on Board at the Time of taking ſuch Prizes,

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Maſters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Enſigns and Quarter-Maſters of Land Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Boatſwains, Gunners, Purſer, Carpenter, Maſters Mates, Chirurgeon, Pilot and Chaplain on Board, ſhall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongſt them.

The Midſhipmen, Captain's Clerk, Maſter-Sailmaker, Carpenter's Mates, Boatſwains Mates, Gunner's Mates, Maſter at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Cockſwain, Quarter-Maſters, Quarter-Maſters Mates, Chirurgeon's Mates, Yeomen of the Powder-Room, Serjeants of Marines and Land Forces on Board, ſhall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongſt them.

The Trumpeters, Quarter-Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunſmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines, and other Soldiers, and all other Perſons doing Duty and aſſiſting on Board, ſhall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongſt them.

Provided that if any Officer being on Board any of our Ships of War at the Time of taking any Prize ſhall have more Commiſſions or Offices than one, ſuch Officer ſhall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes, which, according to the above mentioned Diſtribution, ſhall belong to his ſuperior Commiſſion or Office. And We do hereby ſtrictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Veſſels of War taking any Prize, as ſoon as may be, to tranſmit, or cauſe to be tranſmitted, to the Commiſſioners of Our Navy, a true Liſt of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others who were actually on Board Our Ships and Veſſels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which Liſt ſhall contain the Quality of the Service of each Perſon on Board, and be ſubſcribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on Board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commiſſioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cauſe to be examined, ſuch Liſts by the Muſter Books of ſuch Ships and Veſſels of War, and Liſts annexed thereto, to ſee that ſuch Liſts do agree with the ſaid Muſter Books and annexed Liſts, as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others belonging to ſuch Ships and Veſſels of War, and, upon Requeſt, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any Liſt tranſmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take Care and diſpoſe of ſuch Prize; and alſo, upon Application to them, (the ſaid Commiſſioners) they ſhall give or cauſe to be given to the ſaid Agents all ſuch Liſts from the Muſter Books of any ſuch Ships of War, and annexed Liſts, as the ſaid Agents ſhall find requiſite for their Direction in paying the Produce of ſuch Prizes, and otherwiſe ſhall be aiding and aſſiſting to the ſaid Agents in all ſuch Matters as ſhall be neceſſary. We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations ſhall be obſerved concerning the One Eighth Part herein before mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag Officers, who ſhall actually be on Board at the taking of any Prize, or ſhall be directing or aſſiſting therein: Firſt, That a Flag Officer, Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, ſhall have to his own Uſe the ſaid One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Veſſels under his Command: Secondly, That a Flag Officer, ſent to command at Jamaica or elſewhere, ſhall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Veſſels employed there before he arrives at the Place to which he is ſent, and actually takes upon him the Command. Thirdly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is ſent out to reinforce a ſuperior Flag Officer, at Jamaica or elſewhere, the ſuperior Flag Officer ſhall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer, before the inferior Flag Officer ſhall arrive within the Limits of the Command of the ſuperior Flag Officer, and actually receive ſome Order from him. Fourthly, That a chief Flag Officer returning Home, from Jamaica or elſewhere, ſhall have no Share of the Prizes taken by the Ships or Veſſels left behind to act under another Command. Fifthly, That if a Flag Officer is ſent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he ſhall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Veſſels which have ſailed from that Port by Order from the Admiralty. Sixthly, That when more Flag-Officers than One ſerve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Veſſels of the Fleet or Squadron, ſhall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief ſhall have Two Third Parts of the ſaid One Eighth Part, and the other ſhall have the remaining Third Part; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief ſhall have only One Half, and the other Half ſhall be equally divided amongſt the other Flag Officers. Seventhly, That Commodores with Captains under them ſhall be eſteemed as Flag Officers with reſpect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief or ſerving under Command. Eighthly, That the Firſt Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and alſo the Firſt Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Twenty Ships of the Line of Battle, and alſo the Firſt Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Fifteen Ships of the Line of Battle (provided ſuch laſt mentioned Fleet or Squadron ſhall be compoſed of His Majeſty's own Ships,) ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and ſhall be intitled to a Part or Share of Prizes as the Junior Flag Officer of ſuch Fleet or Squadron. And We do hereby further order, That in caſe of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Veſſels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of ſuch Lieutenants ſhall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unleſs ſuch Lieutenants ſhall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers; in which Caſe the Flag Officer or Officers ſhall have One of the ſaid Three Eighths, to be divided among ſuch Flag Officer or Officers, in the Manner herein before directed, in the Caſe of Captains ſerving under Flag Officers. Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Maſter, or other Perſon acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot, (if there happens to be One on Board,) ſhall be One Eighth Part, to be divided into Three equal Parts, of which Two Thirds ſhall go to the Maſter or other Perſon acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but if there is no Pilot, then ſuch Eighth Part to go wholly to the Maſter or Perſon acting as Second in Command. That the Share of the Chirurgeon, or Chirurgeon's Mate (where there is no Chirurgeon,) Midſhipmen, and Clerk and Steward, ſhall be One Eighth; that the Share of the Boatſwain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's Mates, Yeomen of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Maſter, and Quarter-Maſter's Mate, ſhall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Perſons on Board, aſſiſting in the Capture, ſhall be Two Eighth Parts. But it is Our Intention, nevertheleſs, that the above Diſtribution ſhall only extend to ſuch Captures as ſhall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, or Armed Veſſel, without any of His Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels of War being preſent or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy: But in caſe any of His Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels of War ſhall be preſent, or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men on Board ſuch Cutters and Schooners, or Armed Veſſels, ſhall ſhare in the ſame Proportion as is allowed to Perſons of the like Rank and Denomination on Board His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels of War.

Produce

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fifth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, and in the Thirty-ſixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

St. James's, November 25.

THIS Day his Grace the Duke of Portland, Chancellor of the Univerſity of Oxford, the Reverend Dr. Wills, Vice-Chancellor, Mr. Davis and Mr. Hutton, Proctors, Dr. Eveleigh, Provoſt of Oriel, and the Reverend Mr. Jackſon, Regius Profeſſor of Greek, together with Dr. Chapman, Preſident of Trinity, the Honorable Dr. Wenman, Regius Profeſſor of Civil Law, and Dr. Wall, Lord Lichfield's Chemical Profeſſor, Mr. Beſt and Mr. Benſon, Regent Maſters, being the Delegates appointed by the Univerſity to attend on this Occaſion, accompanied by his Grace the Archbiſhop of York, the Earl of Mansfield, Lord Preſident of the Council, his Grace the Duke of Leeds, the Marquis of Titchfield, the Earls of Mount Edgecumbe, Temple, Gower, the Lords Grenville, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, Hawkeſbury, Auckland, Mendip, the Right Honorable William Wyndham, Sir William Dolben, Bart. and Francis Page, Eſq; Members for the Univerſity, Sir J. Aubrey, Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, Sir Joſeph Banks, Sir Charles Morgan, Baronets, and ſeveral other Noblemen and Gentlemen who were educated at the Univerſity, waited upon the King to preſent the following Addreſs of Congratulation upon His Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the Danger to which His Royal Perſon has lately been expoſed.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of the Univerſity of Oxford, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and with the profoundeſt Sentiments of Duty and Affection to congratulate your Majeſty on eſcaping from the Danger to which your ſacred Perſon hath lately been expoſed. With particular Grief and Indignation we reflect that this wicked, ungrateful and traiterous Inſult was offered to your Majeſty at the very Time when your paternal Care was manifeſting itſelf, in the Exerciſe of your high Office, for the Preſervation and Happineſs of your Subjects.

We abhor thoſe pernicious Doctrines, which, diſſeminated under the Pretence of Reform, have produced this Violence and Outrage. We deteſt them as Principles of Sedition, no leſs dangerous to the Conſtitution of our Country than to the Life of your Majeſty: But we humbly hope that the ſame good Providence, which hath preſerved your Majeſty from this Danger, will ſtill preſerve a Life ſo important to the Conſtitution, and ſo invaluable to your People, and will long continue to them the Bleſſing of your mild and equitable Government.

Given at our Houſe of Convocation, this 17th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

I Receive with the greateſt Pleaſure this Mark of your cordial Attachment to My Perſon and Government.

The affectionate Sentiments expreſſed by My People on this Occaſion leave Me only to lament that any of My Subjects ſhould have been led to commit ſo violent an Outrage againſt the Laws and Conſtitution, for the Defence and Maintenance of which I ſhall never ceaſe to uſe My utmoſt Exertions.

They were all very graciouſly received, and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

St. James's, November 28.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commiſſioner, the Officers, the Artificers, the Clerks, the Workmen, and the Seamen of Chatham Dock Yard and Ordinary, moſt humbly congratulate your Majeſty from the Bottom of our Hearts upon the providential Eſcape from the recent unchriſtianlike Attempt upon your Majeſty's Life.

We have the fulleſt Confidence that your Majeſty, in Conjunction with the Two Houſes of Parliament, will take the propereſt Meaſures for the Safety of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon in future, for the Happineſs of all your Majeſty's Subjects, and for the Good of the Britiſh Nation in every Reſpect.

[Preſented by Earl Spencer.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commiſſioner, Officers, Clerks, Artificers and Workmen belonging to your Majeſty's Dock-Yard and Ordinary at Plymouth, with the utmoſt Regard and Veneration for your Majeſty's Perſon, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, in order to expreſs our Concern and Indignation at the outrageous Aſſault made on your Majeſty at the Time of your paſſing to and from Parliament, at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion.

Highly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and beneficent Government, we cannot but feel the deepeſt Regret that any Perſon within your Majeſty's Dominions ſhould be found ſo daringly flagitious as to endanger the Safety of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

And it is with the moſt unfeigned Gratitude to the Supreme Being that we congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from ſuch wicked and traitorous Deſigns.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long, happy and proſperous is the unalterable Prayers of your dutiful and faithful Subjects.

November 14, 1795.

The

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Middleſex.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Middleſex, humbly approach your Majeſty, to repeat our Aſſurances of our affectionate Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, and of our Adherence to thoſe Principles of Conſtitutional Liberty which ſeated your Family on the Throne of theſe Realms. We deplore and reprobate the atrocious Outrages by which your Paſſage to and from Parliament was impeded, and your Royal Perſon endangered, on the firſt Day of the preſent Seſſions. That your Majeſty, protected by the Energy of your People's Loyalty, may long reign in their Hearts and Affections, is our ſincere and fervent Prayer.

Richard Glode, } Sheriff.

[Preſented by Sir Richard Glode, Knt. and John Liptrap, Eſq; Sheriff for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, are deſirous of offering to your Majeſty our heartieſt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the outrageous and daring Violence offered to your Majeſty, on your Paſſage to and from your Parliament, at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion.

We feel it likewiſe a Duty incumbent upon us to expreſs our utmoſt Indignation that there ſhould be found amongſt our Fellow Subjects any Perſons ſo inſenſible to the Bleſſings which the Kingdom has enjoyed under our excellent Conſtitution, and under your Majeſty's mild Adminiſtration of thoſe Powers with which you are inveſted for the Security and Happineſs of your Subjects, as to endanger the very Exiſtence of our Form of Government, by an Attempt upon your Majeſty, and in the Exerciſe of one of your moſt ſolemn Duties, the free Communication with your Parliament.

We are ſincerely thankful to Providence for the Happineſs which we enjoy under the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution of this Realm, and under your Majeſty's conſtant and anxious Endeavours to ſecure the Peace, Happineſs and Liberties of your People, by the temperate and wiſe Exerciſe of the Powers and Duties entruſted to you.

We therefore humbly entreat your Majeſty to accept this Aſſurance of our moſt fervent Prayers, that you may long continue on a Throne, ſecured to you by the Loyalty, Affection and Gratitude of your Subjects; and we find ourſelves called upon to declare our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of thoſe execrable Opinions and Proceedings, by which the Perpetrators of this daring and outrageous Act have been induced to this Attempt on the Safety of our beloved King, and on the firſt and moſt ſacred Principles of our invaluable Conſtitution.

Signed, by Order and in the Name of the Meeting, Acton Chaplin, Under Sheriff.

[Preſented by the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.]

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the ancient and loyal Corporation of the Borough and Pariſh of Buckingham, and other Inhabitants of the ſame, beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our ſtrongeſt Deteſtation of the violent and daring Outrage lately committed on the Perſon of our gracious Sovereign, in the Exerciſe of the moſt ſolemn Function entruſted to him by our excellent Conſtitution.

The Safety of the King and the Security of that Conſtitution are Objects equally dear to us, for they are inſeparable; and we feel ourſelves bound by every Principle of perſonal affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty, and of Gratitude to Almighty God, for the many Bleſſings which we have enjoyed under your mild and temperate Government, to expreſs our earneſt Prayers, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over the Hearts of your Subjects; and to declare our firm Determination to ſupport your Majeſty in defending to the utmoſt that Conſtitution which we have ſeen attacked by the evil Machinations of wicked Men, to whoſe abominable Principles and Proceedings we attribute this daring Outrage on your Majeſty's Perſon and on the happy Conſtitution of theſe Realms.

And we beg Leave to expreſs our firm Confidence that the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature will provide ſufficient and immediate Meaſures for your Majeſty's Safety, and for the Security of the Conſtitution againſt thoſe Attempts, which we have ſeen ſo openly avowed at Meetings, and by Publications, ſubverſive of every Principle moſt dear to us.

[Preſented by the Marquis of Buckingham, High Steward of the ſaid Town, and Lord Lieutenant of the County thereof.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, beg to be permitted to teſtify to your Majeſty our deep Concern at the ſcandalous Scene which has been exhibited in the Metropolis by a lawleſs and ferocious Rabble, whoſe unexampled Violence did not ſtop ſhort of open Outrage to your Majeſty's Perſon, in your Paſſage to and from your Parliament.

We muſt at the ſame Time expreſs our heartfelt Congratulations on the Interpoſition of that Providence, which, in averting the Stroke of the Aſſaſſin, has preſerved a Life inſeparably connected with our common Welfare, and has ſpared this Country the Diſgrace which the Commiſſion of ſo foul a Crime muſt for ever have caſt upon it's Annals.

We ſhould vainly look for the Principles of ſuch Enormity in the genuine Character of a brave and manly Nation; but we conſider them as immediately proceeding from thoſe traitorous and ſeditious Aſſemblies, which, by weaning the Affections of the lower and leſs-inſtructed Orders of the Community from the true Sources of their Happineſs, and by familiarizing their Minds with Crimes of Foreign Growth, aim at rendering them the Inſtruments of Attack upon the Liberties and the Conſtitution of their Country.

We therefore learn, with the higheſt Satisfaction, that your Majeſty has, in Conjunction with the Legiſlature, taken Meaſures to ſecure your Royal Perſon from future Inſults, and we truſt that thoſe Meaſures will operate to the total Suppreſſion of all thoſe thoſe Seminaries of Treaſon and Diſaffection, the Exiſtence of which we deem to be incompatible with the Safety of the Realm.

We pledge ourſelves in our ſeveral Capacities, at the Hazard of our Lives and to the Extent of our Fortunes, to enforce Obedience to the Laws, and to carry into Effect ſuch Proviſion as the Wiſdom of Parliament ſhall make for the Maintenance of the Public Tranquility.

We ceaſe not to offer up our Vows to the King of Kings, that the Virtues which dignify your Majeſty's private as well as public Life, may long continue to add Luſtre to the firſt Throne in the World, a Throne which ſtands upon the Love and Veneration of a free and loyal People.

Signed, Philip Morſhead, Sheriff, in the Name and at the Requeſt of the County of Devon.

[Preſented by Colonel Rolle and J. P. Baſtard, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our warmeſt Congratulations on your Eſcape from the daring and flagitious Attack on your ſacred Perſon, made at a Time when you were about to exerciſe one of the moſt valuable Privileges of Sovereignty in giving Activity to the Legiſlature, and Sanction to the Laws.

Perſuaded as we are that the Sentiments which actuated thoſe atrocious Miſcreants are held in Abhorrence by the great Body of your Majeſty's Subjects, we cannot help fearing that the natural Effect of too free Speculations on the Nature of Government muſt, in the Giddineſs of theſe Times of Anarchy and Confuſion, tend to impel ignorant Minds to ſimilar Attempts; we therefore venture to hope that ſuch temporary Reſtraints as the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature may think themſelves juſtified by the Spirit of the Conſtitution to lay on the Conduct of private Perſons, may be ſanctioned by your Majeſty's Approbation.

[Preſented by George Nelthorpe, Eſq; Sheriff, accompanied by Sir John Wodehouſe, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Eſſex, zealouſly attached to the Conſtitution of our Country, of which your Majeſty forms ſo important a Part, and duly ſenſible of the many public as well as private Virtues which have been uniformly exhibited in your Majeſty's perſonal Character and Conduct through a long Reign, are anxious publicly to expreſs the Gratitude which we feel to the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Events, for the Protection which has been afforded to your Majeſty from the daring and outrageous Attacks made upon your Royal Perſon on the firſt Day of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, whilſt your Majeſty was in the actual Exerciſe of the Functions of your Royal Character: By Means of which providential Interpoſition your Majeſty has been preſerved, and, we truſt, will long be continued, to reign over a loyal and affectionate People.

Be aſſured, Sire, that the Inhabitants of the County of Eſſex view with Indignation and Abhorrence theſe moſt treaſonable Attempts on your Majeſty's Perſon and the Conſtitution of their Country; and that they will, on all Occaſions, exert their united and moſt earneſt Endeavours to preſerve as well the one as the other ſafe and inviolate from all Attacks and Attempts whatſoever.

John Hanſon, Sheriff.

[Preſented by John Hanſon, Eſq; High Sheriff, accompanied by Thomas Bramſton, Eſq; and Colonel Bullock, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, Sir William Smith, Bart. Colonel Strutt, —— Wittam, Eſq; —— Pardoe, Eſq; —— Henniker, Eſq; Major, —— Boſanquet, Eſq; Joſeph Eſdaile, Eſq; and O. Conyers, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Warwick.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Warwick, moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that it is with the utmoſt Degree of Concern and Indignation that we have heard of the late wicked and traitorous Attempt made on the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon.

Deeply impreſſed with the Conviction of the Excellence of our ineſtimable Conſtitution, and fully ſenſible how greatly your Majeſty's Virtues have contributed to the Happineſs of your People, we conſider ourſelves as bound by every Principle of Duty, Affection and Gratitude, to defend, at every Riſque, the conſtitutional Rights of the Crown, and the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon, againſt the traitorous Deſigns of Enemies of every Deſcription.

And we ſhall not ceaſe to offer up our fervent Prayers to the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Events for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, which cannot but be conſidered as an Object of the greateſt public Intereſt and national Concern, becauſe it has ever been invariably employed in promoting the Welfare of your People and the general Proſperity of the Kingdom.

Will. Little, Sheriff.

[Preſented by Sir John Mordaunt, Bart. and Sir G. A. W. S. Evelyn, Bart. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County Monmouth.

DEIGN, moſt gracious Sovereign, to accept our humble, but moſt cordial Felicitation upon your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late daring and atrocious Inſult offered to your Royal Perſon in going to and returning from the Houſe of Parliament, at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion, attended with Acts of Violence, which not only endangered your Majeſty's moſt precious Life, but ſeemed to aim

aim at the Extinction of all Order, and even at the Overthrow of the Conſtitution.

We beg Leave, upon this awful Occaſion, to make a ſolemn Declaration of our unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Royal Family, and to aſſure your Majeſty that we are penetrated with a grateful Senſe of the Protection and true Liberty which this Country enjoys under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, and are determined firmly to reſiſt any Machinations or Attempts to ſo ſubvert or diſturb the ſame.

[Preſented by Sir Robert Saluſbury, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, accompanied by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort, the Marquis of Worceſter, Sir Charles Morgan, Bart. Colonel Wood, and Charles Morgan, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, holding in the greateſt Abhorrence the late outrageous and wicked Attack on your Royal Perſon, beg Leave to preſent our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape, and to add our hearty Prayers that Providence may never ceaſe to watch over you, and that you may continne long to reign over a free and happy People.

Hugh Barlow, Chairman.

[Preſented by Hugh Barlow, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the Town of Pembroke.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Salop.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Salop, (by public Advertiſement aſſembled) beg Leave to approach the Royal Preſence with our moſt ſincere and fervent Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the daring and criminal Attempt recently made upon your ſacred Perſon, aſſuring your Majeſty that we view, with the keeneſt Sentiments of Horror and Indignation, both the flagitious Inſtigators and atrocious Perpetrators of this unmerited Outrage; the Heinouſneſs of which is (if poſſible) increaſed, by it's being executed at a Moment when your Majeſty was about to exerciſe the moſt important as well as moſt auguſt Function of your exalted Station, conjointly with the National Repreſentation to legiſlate for a free and enlightened People.

Permit us alſo, Sire, to take this Opportunity of returning your Majeſty our warmeſt Acknowledgments for the generous Communication to Parliament of your Royal Intentions to put a Stop to the preſent deſtructive and ſanguinary War, as ſoon as ſuch a Meaſure can be adopted, conſiſtently with the Dignity of the Crown, the Intereſts of the State, and the general Safety of Europe: But conſcious, as we are, that ſo deſirable an Event can only be obtained by the moſt prompt and vigorous Preparations for War, we engage to co-operate with the Executive Goverment in every Mode that can give Energy to it's Exertions, and eventually command the Bleſſings of an honourable and advantageous Peace.

And, above all, we aſſure your Majeſty, that we will ourſelves practiſe and direct our moſt aſſiduous Attention to inculcate, and, if neceſſary, to enforce in our reſpective Neighbourhoods, that peaceful Demeanour and legal Subordination, which is the only ſolid Baſis of public Strength and individual Proſperity.

Signed, for and on Behalf of the Meeting, by Henry Bevan, Sheriff.

Shrewſbury, Nov. 14, 1795.

[Preſented by the High Sheriff, accompanied by Lieutenant-Colonel Kynaſton, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Roxburgh, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to expreſs the Horror with which we were ſeized at the atrocious Attempt upon the Life of the beſt of Monarchs.

Thankful for that diſtinguiſhed Proſperity which, under Providence, we owe to our excellent Conſtitution, and to the Fidelity and Firmneſs with which your Majeſty has uniformly ſupported it, we feel ourſelves bound, at every Hazard of Life and Fortune, to defend your Royal Perſon againſt all foreign Enemies, and the more dangerous Attempts of domeſtic Traitors.

Actuated by theſe Sentiments, we embrace this Opportunity of expreſſing our entire and hearty Approbation of the Meaſures now under Conſideration of Parliament, tending more effectually to guard your ſacred Perſon, and prevent thoſe ſeditious Aſſemblies whoſe Proceedings have, for ſo long a Time, filled the Minds of your faithful Subjects with juſt Alarm, and threatened the Deſtruction of every Thing that is dear to us as Men or Britons.

It is our earneſt Prayer that the ſame Providence which has ſhielded your Majeſty from ſecret Danger, may continue to fruſtrate the Projects of ſeditious Men, and prolong your Life for the Happineſs of a grateful People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governor and the States of the Iſland of Guernſey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and the States of your Majeſty's Iſland of Guernſey, aſſembled on this affecting Occaſion to proſtrate ourſevcs before (and devoutly to offer up our humble Thanks to) that almighty, adorable and inviſible Power that guarded and preſerved your Majeſty's Life, (ſo precious and ineſtimable a Bleſſing to the Millions of your loyal Subjects) when. on the 29th of laſt Month, a Band of execrable Ruſſians, dared, with impious Hands and unhallowed Tongues, to inſult and aſſail the ſacred Perſon of our beloved Sovereign in his Carriage, when paſſing to and from his Parliament, at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion thereof.

We beſeech you, Sire, to believe, that as no Part of your Majeſty's extenſive Dominions (in Proportion portion to it's Population) contains more loyal Subjects than this happy Iſland, protected, foſtered and favoured with enequalled Privileges, under your mild and propitious Government: Theſe good Subjects, faithfully and immutably attached your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and illuſtrious Family, are ready to ſacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in Defence of theſe invaluable Pledges, and to preſerve pure and unaltered the matchleſs Conſtitution of Britain.

We are fully confident that no Sovereign exiſting can be more affectionately revered by his Subjects than the preſent virtuous and exalted Monarch of the Britiſh Empire, poſſeſſed as he is of every benignant and engaging Quality that can adorn the human Mind.

Struck with Aſtoniſhment and Abhorrence on receiving a Report of the recent abominable Attempt, we earneſtly pray the Continnuance of a divine and graciouſly interpoſing Providence for your Majeſty's Preſervation, and in pronouncing our bittereſt Maledictions againſt the deteſted Monſters that have thus alarmed us for your Majeſty's Safety, and excited our juſt Indignation and Horror. We with equal Fervency pray, the accurſed Treaſon may be fully detected, and the Traitors condignly puniſhed.

Theſe, moſt gracious Sire, are the earneſt Prayers and heartfelt Wiſhes of your Majeſty's moſt faithful and devoted Subjects and Servants.

In the Aſſembly of the States of Guernſey, this 14th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by the Right Honorable Lord Amherſt.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Liverymen, Freemen and others, Inhabitants of the City of London, whoſe Names are underſigned, deeply impreſſed with unfeigned Sentiments of Affection for the Father of his People, as well as a Senſe of the great Importance of your Majeſty's Safety to the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Subjects, as forming an eſſential Part of our glorious Conſtitution, think it our indiſpenſible Duty to expreſs to your Majeſty our Indignation and Abhorrence at the late moſt atrocious Outrages and malignant Inſults offered to your Royal Perſon in going to and returning from Parliament.

With extreme Concern we have to deplore, that the Minds of any of your Majeſty's Subjects ſhould be ſo infatuated and deſperately criminal as to imagine and contrive any Miſchief, by which the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty, and therein the invaluable Conſtitution of theſe Realms, ſhould be endangered.

Feeling, as we do, that we cannot trace back ſuch nefarious Attempts to any other Source than thoſe thoſe dangerous and ſeditious Meetings and Publications which have multiplied in the Metropolis and its Vicinity, and poiſoned the deluded Minds of a Multitude, till a proper Senſe of the Bleſſings of the Government under which they live has been nearly extinguiſhed: We cannot too gratefully own the paternal Care of your Majeſty, in your late moſt gracious Proclamations, and we confidently rely on the Wiſdom of the united Branches of our excellent Conſtitution, in the preſent Criſis, to apply ſuch wholeſome Meaſures for its own Security and Permanency as will long enſure the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, the Privileges of both Houſes of Parliament, and conſequently the Happineſs of a free and loyal People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens of the Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of your antient City of Lincoln, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to ſhew our Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, and the Conſtitution as by Law eſtabliſhed, by expreſſing our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the late daring and dreadful Outrage offered to your Majſty's Royal Perſon, in the Exerciſe of your invaluable Duties as the Head of the Legiſlature, and by the Eagerneſs we expreſs in being amongſt the firſt of our Fellow Subjects to join in congratulating your Majeſty with heartfelt Gratitude for your late providential Eſcape from the moſt infamous and traitorous Attacks, and the conſequent Preſervation of a Life ſo valuable to your People. We are well aware, that your Majeſty now is, as you ever have been, the Father of your People, and that you have nothing more at Heart than their Welfare and Proſperity.

Believe, Royal Sir, that you have not any Subjects more loyal and attached to you than the Citizens of Lincoln; and permit us to add our earneſt Prayers that your Reign may continue long and proſperous over free and happy Subjects, united to defend their King and excellent Conſtitution.

Given at the Guildhall of the ſaid City, under our Common Seal, the 14th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795, and in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Glouceſter, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Glouceſter, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with Hearts deeply impreſſed with Gratitude to the Divine Being for his great Goodneſs in protecting your Royal Perſon from the premeditated Schemes and wicked Attempts of an outrageous and unprovoked Mob. We cannot view the Conduct of ſuch Perſons but with the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence; and truly ſenſible, as we are, that the Fabrick of our happy Conſtitution depends upon the Safety of your Majeſty, we ſincerely lament that any of your Subjects ſhould have Hearts ſo depraved as even to offer ſuch daring and unwarrantable Inſults to your ſacred Perſon. With theſe Sentiments, we humbly beg Leave to expreſs our firm Attachment to

to your Majeſty, aſſuring you that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſuppreſs all Meaſures that may tend to the Injury of your Royal Perſon or to the Subverſion of our glorious Conſtitution in Church and State.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of your ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, humbly approach your Majeſty at this Criſis to aſſure your Majeſty, that at a Time when the Nation, alarmed at the horrid Outrage committed againſt your Royal Perſon in the Exerciſe of one of the moſt important Functions of your exalted Station, is anxious to teſtify its Abhorrence of the Act which might have endangered your Majeſty's perſonal Safety: We ſhould think ourſelves highly deficient in Duty and Gratitude if we did not regret, as we moſt cordially do, that there ſhould be among your Majeſty's Subjects an Individual ſo deteſtable and ſo unworthy the Name of Engliſhmen as to violate the Conſtitution of his Country by impeding your Majeſty's Progreſs to your Houſe of Parliament, or by offering the leaſt Degree of Violence to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

We cannot conclude this Addreſs without the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of Zeal for the Support of your Majeſty's Welfare and Government, and our earneſt Hopes that your Majeſty may long continue to enjoy the Affection and Confidence of a free and loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal, this 17th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by George Gipps and Sir John Honeywood, Bart. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY affected with the late atrocious Attack upon your Majeſty's Perſon, in the Exerciſe of your higheſt Regal Function, we, Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and other Inhabitants of the City of Norwich, eſteem it our Duty at this Time to aſſure your Majeſty of the grateful Senſe we entertain of your mild and equitable Government, and the Intereſt we take in the Safety of your Royal Perſon, and to expreſs our deep Abhorrence of thoſe wild and deſtructive Theories, that have cauſed ſuch Crimes and Miſeries in a neighbouring Country, have been artfully and induſtriouſly diſſeminated among your Subjects of this Realm, and been the Source of the late daring Violation of the Royal Dignity and the Public Peace.

Anxious for the Preſervation of our excellent Conſtitution, and of thoſe high and valuable Privileges through which this Nation has enjoyed ſuch perfect Freedom and Felicity; but, aware that particular Periods may call for particular Exertions, if, from the unruly Temper of the Times, the Laws exiſting are become incompetent to the Protection of the State, we firmly confide in the Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament for ſuch wiſe and temperate Reſtraints as ſhall at once prevent any violent Attempts againſt the eſtabliſhed Order of Government, and preſerve intire the juſt Rights and Liberties of a loyal and affectionate People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Citizens, Clergy and Inhabitants of the City and Cloſe of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Citizens, Clergy and Inhabitants of the ancient City, and the Clergy and Inhabitants of the Cloſe of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, feeling an unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty, with whoſe perſonal Safety the Government of theſe Kingdoms is ſo happily connected, beg Leave to offer our warmeſt Congratulations upon your providential Eſcape from the daring Outrages lately committed againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon by factious and deluded People, and to expreſs our Indignation and Abhorrence at ſo ungrateful a Return for your Majeſty's private and public Virtues, and for the uniform Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Government, aſſuring your Majeſty of our Support in whatever Conſtitutional Meaſures the Legiſlature may think proper to prevent a Repetition of ſo dangerous an Offence.

We ſincerely unite in our hearty and fervent Prayers to the Almighty King of Kings that He will afford to your Majeſty a long and happy Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the City of Briſtol, warmly intereſted by every Motive of Affection and Gratitude, as well as of Duty, in your Majeſty's Welfare, humbly preſume to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Deliverance from the late violent Outrage offered to your Majeſty's Perſon, and to expreſs our warmeſt Abhorrence of the Principles and Practices of theſe miſguided and infatuated Men, who could be inſtigated to ſuch an atrocious Attack on the Conſtitution of the Country in the Perſon of it's ſupreme Head. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall at all Times be ready to ſtand forth in Defence of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and in Support of that glorious Conſtitution, which we have the Happineſs to enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant Venturers in the City of Briſtol.

PERMIT, moſt gracious Sovereign, the Maſter, Wardens and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers to approach your Throne, and to expreſs their Abhorrence of the Violence lately offered to your Majeſty's Perſon in your Paſſage to your Parliament.

Senſible of the Happineſs we derive from our excellent Form of Government, and gratefully attached to your illuſtrious Family under whom it has ſo long flouriſhed, we conſider the unprincipled Outrage, not only as a Violence offered to your Majeſty's Perſon which we love and revere, but as a daring Attack of the Head of that Conſtitution, which we conſider as the Origin of all our National Happineſs and Honor.

We regret that any Perſons could be found capable of ſo wicked an Attempt; and we fervently pray that the ſame gracious Providence, which hitherto has had your Majeſty under its Protection, will fruſtrate the Deſigns of all foreign and domeſtic Enemies, and will extend to a very diſtant Period, your Majeſty's Reign over a free and grateful People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Weſtminſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Weſtminſter, crave Permiſſion to lay ourſelves at your Royal Feet, to expreſs what Words can expreſs of the Part that we take in the general Joy upon your Majeſty's late Eſcape from the dark Deſigns and outrageous Attempts of Treaſon. We reflect with Grief and Horror that there ſhould exiſt in this Country Hearts to meditate and a ſingle Hand that would execute the atrocious Deſign. With your invaluable Life, had the horrible Attempt ſucceeded, the Happineſs of our Country had been extinguiſhed, your Royal Throne overturned, our Conſtitution ſubverted, and our national Church laid in Ruins. Our Hearts overflow with Gratitude to God that in the Preſervation of your Majeſty He has averted theſe dreadful Miſchiefs, and and our Prayers ſhall daily aſcend to the Almighty that He would continue to watch over your Majeſty for Good, and over your Enemies for Evil; that He would bring their Plots and Conſpiracies to Light, and their Perſons to the Vengeance of their Country's Juſtice; that your Majeſty's own Reign may be long, ſecure and happy, and the Proſperity of your Royal and illuſtrious Houſe perpetual.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſident and Fellows of the Royal College of Phyſicians, in London.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Preſident and Fellows of the Royal College of Phyſicians, in London, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with a Declaration of the Sentiments of Abhorrence which we entertain on the violent Outrage lately committed againſt your Majeſty's Perſon and Dignity.

Believing the execrable Attempt to have received Inſtigation from Principles and Doctrines maliciouſly diffuſed by Men of ſome Education, and of Talents ſuited to better Purpoſes, whoſe Example, for that Reaſon, may be the more pernicious, we, as a Society dedicated to a learned and uſeful Profeſſion, think that it behoves us to teſtify our ſincere Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and our Veneration of our excellent and happy Conſtitution, truſting that by the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature the ſame may be preſerved to our lateſt Poſterity. And it would be Matter of the greateſt Satisfaction to us, if we could preſume to hope that our Example may influence ſuch as have been ſeduced by artful Miſrepreſentation, to attend to their peaceable Duties, to honour their King, and obey Laws to which they owe both their Protection and their Liberty.

We congratulate your Majeſty and the Nation on the timely Interpoſition of Providence, manifeſted in your Majeſty's Preſervation; and we pray, that your Life, which at no Time was more eſſential to the publick Welfare than at the preſent, may be a Life of Health and Felicity, and of long Continuance. In this Wiſh the Intereſts of all Orders of the Community are comprehended. In this Wiſh we ſhall have the Concurrence of all your Majeſty's Subjects who have not abandoned the Love of their Country.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Maſter, Governors and Commonalty of the Art and Science of Surgeons of London, beg Leave, with the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, to approach the Royal Preſence, and moſt reſpectfully to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſignal Deliverance from the traitorous and impious Attacks of miſguided and dangerous Men.

We lament exceedingly that there ſhould exiſt Perſons capable of Deſigns ſo atrocious; and while we rejoice in the merciful Interpoſition of Providence in Favour of your Majeſty and theſe Realms, we cannot but expreſs our Hope that the national Honour, which has been injured and inſulted on this diſgraceful Occaſion, will in ſome Degree be vindicated by the exemplary Puniſhment of Criminals who are capable of committing ſuch Enormities, and by the Adoption of ſuch further Meaſures, as, by ſtopping the Progreſs of Faction and Sedition, the Wiſdom of Parliament ſhall think beſt fitted for the the Preſervation of your ſacred Perſon, and in that Preſervation the Security of theſe Kingdoms.

We offer up our fervent Prayers that the ſame Providence, which has hitherto been manifeſted in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's invaluable Life, may long, very long, continue to theſe Realms a Sovereign ſo juſtly dear to his People.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, Tradeſmen and other Inhabitants of the Town of Preſton, in the County of Lancaſter, beg Leave moſt cordially to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on your happy Eſcape from the late deſperate Attack upon your Majeſty's Perſon.

Conſidering the dreadful Conſequences of Riots of all Kinds, we have ſeen with deep Regret, and lamented that ſo many ungrateful Subjects, living under a Conſtitution which is the Admiration of the whole World, ſhould be guilty of the daring Outrages which for ſome Time paſt have diſgraced this happy Iſland. We want Words to expreſs our Abhorrence of the late moſt horrid Attempt upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon; but we truſt and hope that the Promoters and Perpetrators of this moſt wicked Deed will meet with their juſt Puniſhment, and that Europe may ſee that the Subjects of our beloved King will for ever protect and defend him from every Inſult.

That you, Sire, may continue to reign over us many, very many Years, enjoying Peace and every Bleſſing the Almighty can beſtow, is the earneſt and fervent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Sincerely attached to the excellent Conſtitution of this Country, and happy in the mild Adminiſtration of your Majeſty's Government, we ſhould rejoice in the Diſcovery and condign Puniſhment of thoſe who have attempted the Injury of your Majeſty's Perſon, and have thereby endangered the Tranquillity of theſe Kingdoms.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be ever ready in our reſpective Stations to maintain and encourage, to the utmoſt of our Power, a ready Obedience to the Laws, and a cordial Veneration for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We ardently pray that the Almighty may preſerve your Majeſty from all Dangers, and grant you a long and happy Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Pontefract, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt heartfelt Congratulations on your late Eſcape from the daring Attempts of ſome of your deluded Subjects. We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unſhaken Fidelity and Loyalty, and our Abhorrence of ſuch deſperate and heinous Deſigns. With theſe Impreſſions we humbly implore that gracious Providence which has, upon many Occaſions, manifeſted its Protection of theſe Kingdoms, and particularly in this late Inſtance of your Royal Perſon, to vouchſafe to us the Continuance of the great Bleſſing of your Majeſty's Life, ſo eſſential to the Welfare of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, and the Happineſs of all your Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Hertford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our ſincereſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late daring Attack on your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, an Attack marked with peculiar Audacity, as directed againſt you your Majeſty in the Exerciſe of one of the moſt important Functions of the Kingly Office, that of meeting the Lords and Commons of Great Britain in Parliament.

We cannot conſider this Attempt levelled ſolely at the Life of our Sovereign, endeared to us by his many publick and private Virtues, but at the Exiſtence of Monarchy itſelf; and while we abhor ſuch daſtardly though deſperate Aſſaſſins, we feel the moſt anxious Alarm at the Danger which threatens the internal Peace and Welfare of the Country; but we truſt, and ſincerely hope, that our happy Form of Government will ever find Protection againſt miſchievous or miſguided Men, who, by Anarchy and Confuſion, may aim at the total Overthrow of all Order and Government, and the Annihilation of every Bleſſing we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign.

And we pray the Diſpoſer of human Events, that your Majeſty may long continue in Health and Glory to reign over a loyal People, ever happy in the Enjoyment of Peace, when the ſame can be ſecured to them conſiſtent with the Honour and Dignity of their Country, and ready to ſupport and defend the Rights of your Majeſty's Crown and that excellent Conſtitution which for Ages has been the Source of their own Happineſs, and the Envy of ſurrounding Nations.

Whether we reflect on this nefarious Attempt as an Invaſion of that private Happineſs to which the uniform Tenor of a virtuous and exemplary Life affords your Majeſty ſo juſt a Claim, or as a daring Outrage more immediately offered to your ſacred Perſon as Guardian of the Laws, and as forming an integral Part of the Legiſlature of this Kingdom; whether we conſider is an unparalleled Inſult to both Houſes of your Majeſty's Parliament, aſſembled and waiting to be opened by your Majeſty for the Diſpatch of weighty and momentous national Buſineſs, or as a moſt deſperate Attack on the Laws, Government and happy Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and conſequently implicating every Thing which has a Relation to the Security of the Lives, the Liberty or Property of your Majeſty's Subjects; in whatever Point of View we place this highly criminal Act, we are impelled to look upon it as the moſt ferocious Degradation of human Nature, totally derogatory from the national Character, and every Way unworthy of Britons.

But whilſt we rejoice with the Kingdom at large, and unite with all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects in the moſt heartfelt Congratulation on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from perſonal Injury, we humbly beg to be permitted to expreſs our grateful Thanks for your Majeſty's late moſt gracious Declaration to your Parliament on the Subject of Peace, "That ſhould "the preſent Criſis of Public Affairs in France termi-"nate in any Order of Things compatible with the "Tranquillity of other Countries, and affording a "reaſonable Expectation of Security and Perma-"nence in any Treaty which might be concluded, the "Appearance of a Diſpoſition to negotiate for a "general Peace on juſt and ſuitable Terms would "would not fail to be met by your Majeſty with an "earneſt Deſire to give it the fulleſt and ſpeedieſt "Effect."

We moſt ardently pray to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events that He may ſoon be pleaſed to enable your Majeſty to carry this your moſt gracious Declaration into Effect, and that the Period may not be remote when your Royal Breaſt will feel the high Satisfaction of reſtoring to your People the greateſt of all national Bleſſings, a ſecure, permanent and honorable Peace.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder and Freemen of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingſton upon Thames, beg Leave, with all Humility, to join in the univerſal Congratulations of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects upon the providential Deliverance of your Majeſty from the late moſt daring Aſſault and flagitious Outrage offered to your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon. Highly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy, in common with our Fellow Subjects, under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, it is with the moſt ſincere Concern we lament that any Perſon could be found within your Majeſty's Dominions ſo evil-minded and ſo daringly wicked; but whilſt we reflect, with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Indignation, on a Conduct ſo atrocious, we acknowledge, with Reverence and Gratitude, the Divine Goodneſs in the Preſervation of a Life ſo juſtly dear and valuable to your People, and on which the Safety and Happineſs of theſe Realms depend.

Permit us, Sire, on this Occaſion, to aſſure your Majeſty of our Duty, Regard and Affection for your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Family.

May you long, very long reign over a free, flouriſhing, and affectionate People; and may your future Life be attended with Health, Proſperity, and every earthly Comfort.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Guildhall of ſaid our Town, the 17th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Preſented by the Right Honorable Lord Onſlow, High Steward of the ſaid Corporation.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Warrington.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Warrington, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, to expreſs our warmeſt Congratulations on your Eſcape from the late daring and wicked Outrage offered to your Royal Perſon, at the Time when your Majeſty was in the Exerciſe of your Royal Function, and fulfilling your Part of our moſt excellent Conſtitution. With ſincere Pleaſure we embrace every Opportunity of expreſſing our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, but at the preſent Moment we feel peculiar Satisfaction in approaching the Throne, to declare our Abhorrence of thoſe Principles which have led to the Enormities we deplore.

When we contemplate the many Virtues which adorn your Majeſty's private Character, we cannot help conſidering this outrageous Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon as an Attack, not only on the Perſon of our King, but, through him, upon the Conſtitution of our Country; not only upon the Monarch on the Throne, but on the Monarchy itſelf. And while with Sorrow we lament that there ſhould be any Perſon in your Majeſty's Realms who could deviſe or attempt an Act, combining, in the full Meaſure of it's Atrocity, the Violation of the moſt ſacred Rights of Nature with the Deſtruction of ſocial Order, we at the ſame Time declare our firm Reſolution to ſupport, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government.

Convinced, as we are, that there can be no Security to your Majeſty's Subjects, unleſs your Majeſty, the Guardian of the Laws, is in Safety, we ſee, with heartfelt Satisfaction, the Meaſures now taking by your Majeſty's Two Houſes of Parliament for the Protection of your Perſon and Government, and for the Suppreſſion of all ſeditious Societies.

That your Majeſty may long, very long, reign in the Hearts of all your People, and in the Enjoyment of Health, Peace and Happineſs, is, and ſhall continue to be, our ſincere Wiſh and earneſt Prayer.

[Preſented by John Blackburn, Eſq; and Colonel Stanley, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Lancaſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and others, Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorcheſter, in the County of Dorſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and others, Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough of Dorcheſter, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Expreſſions of our utter Abhorrence of the diabolical Attack lately made on your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the Hands of a miſchievous and lawleſs Rabble. It is with peculiar Satisfaction that we behold the Wiſdom of Parliament already employed in taking ſuch Meaſures as, we hope, will prevent a Repetition of ſuch daring Outrages in future: But conſidering the Inſufficiency of all human Means, and feeling how intimately connected our deareſt Intereſts are with the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, we moſt ardently pray that the ſame Almighty Power which has ſecured it hitherto, will, in his great Goodneſs, continue it to a long and diſtant Period, for we are entirely perſuaded that the ſole Object of your Majeſty's Government is to promote the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People.

We remain your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt dutiful, and moſt obedient Subjects.

[Preſented by the Hon. Cropley Aſhley and Francis Fane, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Agent and Captains of the Packets employed in your Majeſty's Service on the Falmouth Station, approach your Majeſty to expreſs our Grief for the daring and highly criminal Outrages that were lately committed, to the Danger of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to the Interruption of your Majeſty's Paſſage to your Parliament. We moſt humbly congratulate your Majeſty, and are thankful to Almighty God for the Preſervation of a Life, on which the Safety and Happineſs of theſe Realms, and in the preſent Criſis the Welfare of all Europe, materially depend.

We ſhall ever be ready to take an active Part in defending your Majeſty's Life and Dignity againſt the ſeditious and treaſonable Combinations of thoſe who by inſidious Pretexts endeavour to delude your Subjects into Acts as deteſtable in themſelves as they are unworthy of a brave and honourable People; fully perſuaded that nothing we poſſeſs, neither our Liberty or our Property, can be ſafe, unleſs your Majeſty, the Guardian of the Laws, be in Safety.

Signed, on Behalf of the Agent and Captains, at Falmouth, the 16th Day of November, 1795.

B. Pender, Agent.

St. James's, November 28.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the Burgh of Kinghorn, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of your ancient Burgh of Kinghorn, beg Leave, upon this Occaſion, to approach your Throne with a Mixture of Joy and Regret: We regret that there ſhould be found amongſt your Majeſty's Subjects an Individual ſo profligate as even to imagine an Inſult to your Royal Perſon; but we exult in joining our Fellow Citizens in the Congratulations which your Majeſty is now receiving, on eſcaping from a lawleſs Rabble, who were ſo daring as to offer it. We truſt the Actors in this Outrage ſhall ſoon be diſcovered and puniſhed; and that the Bills now depending in Parliament, for ſuppreſſing ſeditious Meetings, will effectually check thoſe unlawful Combinations, that are ſo deſtructive to the Peace and Welfare of Society.

In the mean Time we pray that a kind Providence may long continue to preſerve your Majeſty's precious Life, not only for a Bleſſing to theſe Realms, but for promoting the general Happineſs of Europe.

Signed in their Name, and by their Appointment, by And. Hamilton, Provoſt.

Kinghorn, November 10, 1795.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chairman, Directors and Members of the Chamber of Commerce and Manufactures of Edinburgh, deeply ſenſible of the Value of that Conſtitution under which we enjoy ſo many Bleſſings, cannot look back on a late Attack on your ſacred Perſon, and Inſult to your Royal Dignity, without Surprize and Indignation.

Truſting that the Wiſdom of Parliament will adopt ſuch Meaſures as will effectually prevent a Repetition of ſuch wicked Attempts, we beg Leave moſt humbly to aſſure your Majeſty that we will be at all Times ready to ſtand forth in Support of your Perſon and Government; and we moſt fervently beſeech the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Events to protect your Majeſty from ſecret Conſpiracy and open Violence.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a grateful, free and happy People is the ardent Wiſh of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chairman, Directors and Members of the Chamber of Commerce and Manufactures of Edinburgh.

Signed, by our Appointment, by Robert Young, Chairman.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Dunblane, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to congratulate your Majeſty upon your Deliverance from a late imminent Danger.

Deeply ſenſible of the manifold Bleſſings which we and all your Majeſty's Subjects enjoy under the Auſpices of your Majeſty's benign Reign, we have beheld with Aſtoniſhment that there ſhould be, in your Majeſty's Dominions, any Perſons ſo wicked, as, by a daring Attack upon the Perſon of their gracious Sovereign, to commit an Act of Treaſon againſt the Britiſh Conſtitution.

Grateful to Divine Providence for prolonging a Life dear to all good Men, we ſhall continue our utmoſt Exertions to impreſs upon the Minds of all committed to our Care, a Love of Order and good Government, a Hatred of every Thing which may diſturb the Peace of Society, and a ſacred Regard for your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government.

That Almighty God may ever keep your Majeſty under His Holy Protection, that the Britiſh Sceptre may, through lateſt Ages, be ſwayed with Glory and Renown, by Princes of the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover; and that your Majeſty's Endeavours to promote the Happineſs and Welfare of theſe Realms, may ever be gratefully acknowledged by a loyal and dutiful People, are the earneſt Prayers of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Dunblane.

Pat. Murray, Moderator.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Society of Conſtables for the Peace of the City of Edinburgh, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne at this important Criſis, to expreſs our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and our Feelings of Sorrow and Indignation at the daring Inſults offered to your ſacred Majeſty, in going to and coming from Parliament, at the Opening of this Seſſion, by a lawleſs Banditti, under the Influence of the moſt wicked and pernicious Principles, entirely ſubverſive of all good Order and Government.

Selected from amongſt our Fellow-Citizens, as Guardians of the Peace of this City, we have had an Opportunity of being fully convinced of the wicked Intentions and dangerous Machinations of a Set of Men, who, under various Pretexts, endeavoured to delude the Ignorant and Unwary into unlawful Combinations againſt your Majeſty and our happy Conſtitution. In Proportion, however, as their Vices have been developed, Numbers of thoſe who have been deceived by them have returned to a Senſe of their Duty; and we have the Happineſs of aſſuring your Majeſty, the Influence of their ſeditious Principles has in this Place rapidly declined; and we are fully confident that the late Attack on our happy Conſtitution, in the Perſon of your Majeſty, will tend more fully to diſcloſe their wicked Purpoſes, and to unite your Majeſty's Subjects in unſhaken Principles of Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty, under whoſe happy Government we have enjoyed ſo many Bleſſings; and we alſo humbly hope that your Majeſty's Parliament will adopt ſuch Meaſures as may effectually prevent ſuch Abuſes in future, and tend to the Suppreſſion of every Attempt to overturn the Conſtitution of our Country.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Apppointment, at Edinburgh, the 18th Day of November, in the Year 1795.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Berwick Loyal Volunteer Corps.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Officers and Privates of your Majeſty's Corps of Berwick Loyal Volunteers, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, with the moſt profound Reſpect, and with the moſt perfect Sentiments of Loyalty and Veneration, to expreſs our Horror at the moſt daring Aſſault and Outrage offered to your Majeſty, in your late Paſſage to and from your Parliament.

We are unable, in adequate Terms, to expreſs our heartfelt Concern, that any Perſon within your Majeſty's Dominions ſhould be found ſo truly wicked as to hazard, by ſuch atrocious Violence, the Safety of your ſacred Perſon, and thereby the Happineſs of the Country.

It is, therefore, with the moſt profound Sentiments of Gratitude to the Supreme Ruler of all Events, that we have to congratulate your Majeſty on your very providential Eſcape from ſuch traitorous and flagitious Attacks, ſo dangerous to the public Tranquillity, and in Violation of our happy Conſtitution, of which your Majeſty forms ſo important a Part.

Permit us, Sire, to expreſs our great Satisfaction, reſpecting the Bill about to be paſſed by your Parliament, for the greater Security of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, as aiming only at ſuch Men as are dangerous to Society, and unworthy the Protection of your Majeſty's mild and happy Government. With the moſt perfect Veneration, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that your Majeſty's Berwick Loyal Volunteers are unanimouſly diſpoſed, on all Occaſions, to ſacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of Inverneſs.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of your antient Borough of Inverneſs, beg Leave, with the moſt lively Sentiments of Affection, Reſpect and Veneration, to expreſs our ſincere Sorrow and Regret that under the benign Influence of the beſt of Kings and the happieſt Government any Perſons ſhould be found ſo flagitiouſly wicked as to ſtir up a riotous and lawleſs Mob to offer Inſult and Outrage to your Majeſty on a late Occaſion, in going to and returning from meeting your Parliament.

Deeply impreſſed with the warmeſt Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, we ſincerely congratulate you on your happy Eſcape from the daring Attack made on your Royal Perſon.

We return to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events our grateful Acknowledgments that he has been pleaſed, as a valuable Addition to our other Mercies, to preſerve your Majeſty's Life, which we earneſtly pray may be continued in Health and Proſperity, and that you may long reign in the Hearts of a loyal, grateful and happy People.

To promote, by the Favour of Heaven, theſe deſirable Ends, we aſſure your Majeſty that we are determined by every Means in our Power to protect and ſupport your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government againſt all foreign and domeſtic Enemies.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Perth, duly aſſembled, humbly deſire to approach your Majeſty, to expreſs the Feelings of our Hearts upon Occaſion of the late daring Outrage offered to your Majeſty's Perſon.

We do not ceaſe to render our ſincereſt Thanks to Almighty God, who, by a great Deliverance, hath been pleaſed to ſave your Majeſty's moſt precious Life from the atrocious Attempts of turbulent and wicked Men: And we deeply lament that any of your Majeſty's Subjects ſhould have been ſo far deſtitute titute of a Senſe of their Duty to God and to your Majeſty, as to offer Violence to your Royal Perſon.

Our moſt earneſt Prayer to God is, that your Majeſty may long be preſerved, for a Bleſſing to the Kingdoms over which you reign; and that all who follow ſeditious or treaſonable Practices may be detected and put to Shame.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, in the County of Ayr, moſt humbly requeſt Permiſſion at this Time to preſent to your Majeſty our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's fortunate Eſcape from the late diabolical Attack made on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to expreſs our utmoſt Deteſtation of a Crime, attempted by wicked and miſled Aſſaſſins, at which Humanity ſhudders.

Impreſſed with a juſt Senſe of the many and ſignal Bleſſings, which Britons enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, our greateſt Deſire ſhall ever be to conduct ourſelves as your Majeſty's affectionate and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Lanark, and Deacons of Crafts thereof, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Lanark, and Deacons of Crafts thereof, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty with this our unanimous Addreſs, to expreſs our Gratitude for thoſe manifold Bleſſings which we enjoy, in common with all our Fellow Subjects, under your mild, juſt and legal Government.

Being thus ſenſible of our own Happineſs, it is with equal Sorrow and Surprize that we find ourſelves called upon to expreſs our Horror and Indignation at the moſt daring Aſſault and Outrage offered to your Royal Perſon, in your Majeſty's Paſſage to and from your Majeſty's Parliament, when about to exerciſe the ſacred Duties of the Crown, and to fulfil your Part of our moſt excellent Conſtitution.

We ſincerely lament that a Period has arrived when any Perſon within your Majeſty's Dominions ſhould be found ſo daringly wicked as to hazard, by ſuch atrocious Violence, the Safety of your Royal Perſon, and therein the Happineſs of a whole Country.

It is therefore, with the moſt profound Sentiments of Gratitude to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events, that we have to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from ſuch traitorous Attacks, dangerous at once to the public Tranquillity, and in Violation of the glorious Conſtitution, of which your Majeſty forms ſo important a Part.

Permit us, Sire, to return your Majeſty our moſt grateful Thanks for your gracious Intention to give the fulleſt and ſpeedieſt Effect to a Negotiation for a general Peace, on juſt and ſuitable Terms, whenever an Order of Things ſhall ariſe in France compatible with the Tranquillity of other Countries. In the mean Time a vigorous Exertion of the Force of Great Britain appears to us to be the only Means by which this important End can be accompliſhed.

That Almighty God may bleſs your Majeſty's Councils, give Succeſs to your Arms; that a ſpeedy Peace may take Place, and the further Effuſion of Human Blood be prevented; that you may have a long and proſperous Reign over a free and happy People, is our ſincere Prayer.

At a Meeting of the Dunbar Royal Volunteers, held in the Town Hall, Dunbar, on Monday the 16th of November, 1795, the following Addreſs was unanimouſly voted to His Majeſty, and Criſtopher Middlemaſs, Eſq; Major Commandant of the Corps, was requeſted to ſign and tranſmit the ſame to the Marquis of Tweedale, Lord Lieutenant of the County, in order that his Lordſhip might forward the ſame to His Majeſty's Secretary of State.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Dunbar Royal Volunteers, impreſſed with the ſame Sentiments of Veneration, and ſteady Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and Governments that induced us to requeſt Permiſſion to take up Arms in Defence of what is dear to every Lover of his Country, our Liberties, as ſecured to us by our glorious Conſtitution, deem it our Duty again to declare our Readineſs to contribute our Share, as far as the Sphere of our Power extends, to promote a dutiful Submiſſion to the Laws; and while we rejoice that your Majeſty was preſerved from a late imminent Danger, we cannot help expreſſing our Indignation and Abhorrence at thoſe daring and wicked Inſults that were offered to your Royal Perſon by a Set of Men who have ſo often endeavoured to embroil their Country, and excite in the public Mind a Spirit of Diſtruſt and Diſſatisfaction towards the Government. Anxious for the Support and Preſervation of our Conſtitution, whoſe Importance and Value appear more conſpicuous from the Conduct of thoſe who vilely endeavour to deſtroy it, we truſt that thoſe Diſturbers of due Order will be watched with ſuch Vigilance that their wicked Hands will continue to be bound up, and that their pernicious Schemes will only ſerve to cement the more firmly the Hearts of all who love their Country, and cauſe them ſtrain every Nerve to ſtrengthen the Hands of thoſe who are appointed to adminiſter the Laws, and promote our Intereſts.

Zealous for the Preſervation of our Rights and Privileges, ſacred and civil, and ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild, equitable, and paternal Adminiſtration, we hope that the ſame Providence, which has hitherto been your Preſerver, will continue to protect your Majeſty againſt all the evil Deſigns of the Turbulent and Seditious.

That your Majeſty may long reign happy in the Enjoyment of every Bleſſing, happy in poſſeſſing the Confidence and Affection of a virtuous and loyal People, is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Dunbar Royal Volunteers.

The humble Addreſs of the Corps of Volunteers for the internal Defence of the City of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corps of Volunteers of the City of York, implore Permiſſion to approach the Throne with our ſincere and fervent Congratulation on the late providential Deliverance of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon from the Violence of diſaffected and traiterous Men, who, with a Purpoſe to introduce Confuſion and Anarchy, have aimed a Blow at the invaluable Life of a Sovereign, under whoſe mild and conſtitutional Government the Bleſſings of Law and Order have long been enjoyed by a free and happy People.

Embodied as we are, under your Majeſty's moſt gracious Sanction, permit us here to renew to your Majeſty that Engagement by which we ſtand bound in our Perſons to maintain, and to the Extent of our Influence to promote Reſpect and Obedience to the Conſtitution and Laws of our Country, a due and grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Adminiſtration of thoſe Laws, and conſequently the moſt dutiful and affectionate Attachment and Loyalty to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of Maybole, deeply affected at that daring Inſult and atrocious Outrage lately offered to the ſacred Perſon of our beloved Sovereign the Father of his People, beg Leave, we truſt, in Accord with the united Sentiments and Voice of the Britiſh Nation, humbly to offer up our hearty Congratulations for the providential Delivery of your Majeſty out of the Hands of wicked Men, hired, it would ſeem, by no leſs execrable Leaders.

On this Occaſion permit us to expreſs our earneſt and conſtant Wiſh, that it may pleaſe God to prolong for many Years your Majeſty's Life, for a Bleſſing to your People, and for the Maintenance of that happy Conſtitution under which they enjoy the ſecure Poſſeſſion of their Property, and all their Rights and Privileges both civil and religious.

May the wicked Deſigns of factious Men, concerted againſt your Majeſty, prove at all Times abortive, and ſerve only to bring on themſelves that Puniſhment and Infamy which they juſtly deſerve, is, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, the ſincere Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt faithful, affectionate, and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of Maybole.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty

TO accept the ſincere Congratulations of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Officers and Volunteers forming the firſt Company of Cinque Ports Infantry within the Town of Faverſham, in the County

County of Kent, upon the providential Deliverance of your Majeſty from the nefarious Attempts of an abandoned Set of Miſcreants, who, loſt to every Senſe of Feeling, and unmindful of the ſacred Station which your Majeſty holds in the Conſtitution of theſe Realms, have dared to attempt the Life of your Majeſty, and even at the Time when your Majeſty was about to diſcharge the Duties of your high Office in Parliament.

The voluntary Services which we have chearfully embraced, comprehending not merely a Defence againſt the common Foe, but alſo the Suppreſſion of Tumults and ſeditious Practices, we cannot, at this important Criſis, reſtrain our ardent Deſire to expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, our Deteſtation of the Principles which actuated the Minds of thoſe who formed the horrid Deſign againſt your Majeſty's Life; and although happy in the Reflection that in our Situation we perceive Loyalty to your Majeſty to be the univerſal Sentiment, yet, ever mindful of the Purpoſe of our Inſtitution, we will, whenever called upon, ſupport the glorious Conſtitution, of which your Majeſty forms ſo eſſential a Part, and with our Lives defend it againſt the Attacks of open Force and intereſted Malevolence.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dover Cinque Port Companies of Volunteer Infantry, aſſociated and embodied for the Defence of this ancient and loyal Town, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the late atrocious and malignant Attack on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to expreſs our Abhorrence of ſo deteſtable an Attempt, proceeding from Doctrines inſiduouſly inſtituted into the Minds of your Majeſty's deluded Subjects, tending to overthrow all ſocial Order, and to ſubvert our happy and glorious Conſtitution.

Suffer us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to add our warmeſt Wiſhes for the Prolongation and Support of your Majeſty's mild and happy Government, a Government ſecuring to your Subjects that Felicity and Protection which renders it moſt deſervedly envied.

And allow us, Sire, with our ardent Wiſhes for the Continuation of your Reign, to offer thoſe Services to yourſelf and our Country, for which you have been graciouſly pleaſed to permit us to arm, with full Aſſurance of our unſhaken and unalterable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty and preſent Government; and that we will employ thoſe Arms with Zeal and Firmneſs againſt all ſacrilegious Aſſaſſins, their Counſellors and Abettors, if, unhappily, the Exigencies of the Times compel us to reſort to coercive Meaſures.

Signed by the Officers, with the unanimous Conſent of their reſpective Companies.

Dover, November 23, 1795.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE, the Underſigned, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, and of the Borough

Borough of Gateſhead, (who to the Characters we reſpectively hold in Civil Life have united a Military one in Support of Order and good Government) beg Leave to approach your Majeſty to expreſs our Grief and Indignation for the unmanly and criminal Outrages which were lately offered to your Majeſty's Perſon. We humbly congratulate your Majeſty, and are thankful to the great Diſpoſer of all Events for the Preſervation of your Life, a Life the Preſervation of which at this Period moſt materially concerns not only the Safety and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms, but the Welfare of all Europe. We truſt that your Subjects, animated by the Zeal and Attachment which your Majeſty's many perſonal Virtues muſt neceſſarily inſpire them with, and alſo viewing with Deteſtation theſe nefarious Attempts, will at this Criſis ſtand forward with that Courage and Determination which Britons have ever evinced in Defence of the Conſtitution of their Country.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Deemſters of the Iſle of Mann.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Deemſters of the Iſle of Mann, beg Leave thus to approach your Majeſty, to expreſs our Horror and Conſternation at the daring and atrocious Attacks made upon the moſt ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty, in paſſing lately to and from your Parliament. It is indeed with Aſtoniſhment alſo, equalled only by our Concern, we find, what before we could not have conceived poſſible, that in your Majeſty's Dominions there could exiſt Perſons capable of Crimes ſo deeply flagitious, ſo ſubverſive and deſtructive of all Law and Order, and of every Thing neareſt and deareſt to the Hearts of all good Men; that ſuch Crimes could for a Moment be even imagined, far leſs attempted by any of your Majeſty's Subjects; Men who in the conſtant Experience of the many amiable, princely and patriotic Virtues of your Majeſty, have had ſuch ample and juſt Cauſe to rejoice under a Government and Reign, the great or ſole Objects of which have invariably and obviouſly been, as far as within the Power of human Wiſdom, aided by beſt Intention, to promote, with true Liberty, the Peace, Proſperity, Happineſs, and Glory of the Empire.

We alſo beg Leave, moſt gracious Sovereign, to offer our unfeigned and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential and happy Eſcape from theſe Outrages, perpetrated againſt your Majeſty and our Conſtitution, to expreſs our moſt ardent Wiſh, that the Authors and Abettors of Crimes ſo deeply atrocious may be ſoon diſcovered, and, loaded with the juſt Execration of all good Men, be brought to that exemplary Puniſhment ſuch Crimes ſo richly deſerve; and that your Majeſty may long, very long continue to reign over and in the Hearts of a free, grateful, and happy People, ever including your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects the Inhabitants of the Iſle of Mann.

By Order of the Houſe,

John Taubman, Speaker.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Town and County of Poole, beg Leave to expreſs our utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence of the Outrages offered to your Majeſty's Perſon in your Majeſty's Paſſage to and from Parliament, and our ſincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from Injury. We earneſtly hope the Authors and Abettors of ſo atrocious a Crime will be diſcovered, and receive the juſt Puniſhment of the Laws; and add our ſincere Prayers that it will pleaſe Divine Providence to protect your Royal Perſon, and permit your Majeſty long to reign in the Hearts of a loyal, faithful, and affectionate People.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Irvine, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs our Indignation and Abhorrence at the daring Outrage and Inſult lately offered to your Majeſty on your Majeſty's paſſing to and from Parliament.

When we reflect on the Happineſs which all your Majeſty's Subjects derive from your Majeſty's mild Government, and at the ſame Time conſider that there are Perſons who are inſenſible of it, and have dared to offer ſuch Inſult, we are filled with the deepeſt Concern and Regret.

We alſo beg Leave to profeſs our firm Attachment to your Majeſty, and pray that your Majeſty may long live and reign over your free and happy People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs and Congratulation of the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Aberdeen, in Preſbytery aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Aberdeen, beg Leave with all Humility and Reſpect to approach your Majeſty's Throne; and with that unfeigned Affection, which we owe to the beſt of Sovereigns, to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government.

Animated with theſe Sentiments, we could not without deep Concern hear of the audacious and wicked Attacks ſo lately made upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon in going to and returning from your Parliament.

We lament the Infatuation of thoſe, who, inſenſible to the Benignity and Virtue of a truly Patriot King, to the Mildneſs and Clemency of his Reign, and to the Excellence of a Conſtitution by which we enjoy Liberties and Privileges, in other Countries unknown, could have dared by ſuch an Outrage to expoſe theſe Realms to the Danger of loſing a Monarch ſo deſervedly beloved, and perhaps of exchanging, for the Horrors of Anarchy and Irreligion, all that free-born Britons can regard as dear.

Happy in being able to aſſure your Majeſty that Sentiments of Loyalty and a Love of Order prevail among the People committed to our Charge, with the moſt devout Gratitude to Almighty God we congratulate your Majeſty that the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events, who hath ſo often by ſignal Interpoſitions of his Providence preſerved from imminent Danger the Religion, the Laws, and the Liberties of theſe Realms, hath at this Time ſaved the ineſtimable Life of a Prince, whom under him we juſtly regard as the fatherly Protector of them all.

That God may be graciouſly pleaſed to turn the Hearts of the Diſaffected, to diffuſe the Principles of Loyalty and Virtue over all theſe Kingdoms, and to preſerve your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life, for a Bleſſing to your People: That the Deſcendants of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe may ſit on the Britiſh Throne, as faithful Guardians of the Civil and Religious Liberties of the Nation to the lateſt Poſterity; and that your Majeſty, after a long and proſperous Reign over a free and happy People, may at laſt, through the Merits of Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, enter into thoſe Regions where pious Princes ſhall receive an unfading Crown, are, and ever ſhall be, the moſt fervent Prayers of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Aberdeen.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Selkirk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Selkirk, having heard of the late daring and moſt outrageous Attack made on your Majeſty on your Way to and from Parliament, beg Leave to expreſs our Deteſtation at the Inſult, our Abhorrence of the Perpetrators and our Thankfulneſs to Almighty God for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life and the Safety of your Royal Perſon.

Situated at a Diſtance from the Capital, we are removed from the Knowledge of many of thoſe Attempts uſed by the Seditious to inflame the Minds of the Ignorant, the Unwary and the Idle; but with great Satisfaction we perceive the Two Houſes of Parliament have turned their Attention to the Framing of Regulations, which we truſt will be brought to Maturity, and prove an effectual Bar to the evil Deſigns of the Enemies of the Conſtitution of Great Britain.

We earneſtly hope that thoſe who have been concerned in the Violence offered to your Majeſty may ſpeedily be diſcovered and made to ſuffer the Puniſhment due to the Enormity of their Guilt.

We can with the utmoſt Sincerity aſſure your Majeſt that we remain uncorrupted in our Loyalty, unſhaken in our Attachment to the true Principles of the Conſtitution, and determined on every Occaſion to ſhew forth the Sentiments of Reſpect and Affection which we bear to your Majeſty, to your Government, and to your illuſtrious Family.

That your Majeſty may long reign over us, that your Government may be undiſturbed, and that all your People may be convinced, as we are, of the Happineſs derived from the Mildneſs of your Adminiſtration, is the united Wiſh of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects of the County of Selkirk.

Whilſt we devoutly acknowledge the Interpoſition of Heaven in the Protection of your Royal Perſon, we do at the ſame Time ſincerely lament that there ſhould be found in any Part of your Majeſty's Dominions ſome Individuals, who, unawed by the Dignity of your Royal Character, and regardleſs of the Bleſſings of our happy Form of Government, ſhould dare to inſult your ſacred Perſon, and thereby endanger the Safety of our excellent Conſtitution.

It affords us however the higheſt Satisfaction, that we can aſſure your Majeſty that a Spirit of Loyalty to your Perſon and Attachment to the Conſtitution univerſally prevail amongſt all Ranks of our People.

Your faithful Subjects, who are committed to our Care, feel with us the deepeſt Sorrow and Indignation at the late horrid and unprovoked Attack upon your Majeſty's Perſon, and cordially join in offering Prayers to Almighty God that your Majeſty's Life may be long preſerved for a Bleſſing to theſe Realms.

Horſe-Guards, November 28.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received at the Office of the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Head Quarters of Marſhal Clerfaye's Army, Mayence, November 3, 1795.

My Lord,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordſhip, that Marſhal Clerfaye's advanced Guards have followed up the brilliant Victory of the 29th with ſo much Vigour, that they have taken Forty-three Pieces of Artillery in Addition to the Hundred and Six mentioned in my laſt Report. They have found found the Remains of great Quantities of Ammunition Waggons that had been blown up; Stores of all Sorts, partly damaged partly ſerviceable; and wherever their March has been directed they have perceived evident Traces of the moſt precipitate and diſorderly Flight. General Schaal's diſperſed Army has gone towards the Moſelle.

Marſhal Clerfaye has occupied Bingen and Kreutznach, and placed a Corps in each Poſition behind the Nahe Rivulet as to cut off all direct Communication between Generals Jourdan and Pichegru. He has alſo a Corps at Altzey, whoſe advanced Poſts extend nearly to Worms. Part of his Troops have returned from the Lahn, and the main Army is now collected, and encamped in Front of Mayence behind the Seltz Rivulet.

On the 30th of October the Auſtrian General Boros ſurpriſed and made Priſoners Seven Hundred Infantry who occupied the Nieder Wert, an Iſland on the Rhine near Neuwied. And on the 31ſt the Enemy evacuated the ſtrong Works that they had erected to cover their Bridge at that Place, upon finding that the Auſtrians were preparing to ſtorm them.

Every Day freſh Inſtances come to our Knowledge of Outrages and Cruelties exerciſed by General Jourdan's Troops in their Retreat. The Inhabitants were driven to Deſpair in many Places, and fell upon the Enemy with Forks, Scythes, and ſuch other Weapons as they could procure.

Head Quarters of Marſhal Clerfaye, Bechtheim, Nov. 9, 1795.

My Lord,

I Have the Honour to inform your Lordſhip, that an advanced Corps of Marſhal Clerfaye's Army, under the Command of General Naundorf, obtained an Advantage over the Enemy on the 3d Inſtant, between Altzey and Kirkheim; and on the 4th the Marſhal marched from his Camp before Mayence, on the 5th he arrived at this Place, which is about Eight Engliſh Miles from Worms.

General Wartenſleben encamped the ſame Day with a conſiderable Corps in the Neighbourhood of Altzey, being covered by Two advanced Guards, One under the Prince of Hohenloe at Bingen, the other under General Naundorf, who occupied Kreutzenach, and maſked the Enemy's Poſt at Kirkheim. The advanced Guard of the main Army, commanded by General Kray, encamped near Pfederſheim, upon the Pfrim Rivulet, drawing it's advanced Poſts from the Rhine 'till they formed thoſe of General Naundorf.

On the 6th Inſtant General Naundorf marched with Part of his Troops to take Poſſeſſion of the principal Paſs that leads from Kreutzenach to Kaiſerſlautern. He attacked the Enemy at Rockenhauſen, who, after being diſlodged from a very ſtrong intrenched Poſt at that Place, abandoned Falkenſtein, and retired in great Confuſion behind Winweiler.

The Loſs of the Auſtrians on this Occaſion was not great. The Enemy had about Two Hundred taken Priſoners, and left about Three Hundred dead on the Field.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Peyton, Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels in the Downes, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated November 22, 1795.

SIR,

YOU will pleaſe to acquaint their Lordſhips, that His Majeſty's Sloop Ferret returned here this Morning from cruizing to the Weſtward, and has brought in with her a ſmall French Lugger Privateer of Four Guns, Four-Pounders, and Swivels with Thirty Men.

I underſtand the ſaid Privateer left Calais on Thurſday Morning laſt, and was taken by the Ferret the ſame Night, off Blackneſs.

Whitehall, November 24, 1795.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that on the Afternoon of Saturday the 7th Inſtant, as John Sykes, a Soldier in the 3d Battalion of the 1ſt Regiment of Foot Guards, was paſſing through Thames-Street in the City of London to his Quarters in the Tower, he was, without any Provocation on his Part, violently aſſaulted by Three Men, who were unknown to him, and ſtabbed in his Right Leg, and cut acroſs the Calf thereof with ſome ſharp Inſtrument, of which ſaid Stab and Cut he now lies dangerouſly maimed and wounded; and that upon his endeavouring to ſeize the Man by whom he believed he was ſo wounded and cut, the others again aſſaulted him, and reſcued the Perſon whom he had ſo ſeized.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one or more of the ſaid Offenders, (except the Perſon who actually gave the ſaid Stab and Cut,) who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplices, ſo that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, for a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS will be paid by the Agent of the ſaid Regiment to any Perſon or Perſons (except as before excepted) who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any one or more of the ſaid Offenders, ſo as that he or they may be convicted thereof,

Roſs and Ogilvie, Argyle-Street, Agents.

Whitehall, November 20, 1795.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that late on the Night of Thursday the 12th Instant, or early in the Morning of Friday the 13th Instant, Two Guns, loaded with Slugs or other Pieces of Lead, were, by certain evil-minded Persons, fired into a Bedchamber of the Dwelling-House of —— Pyrke, Esq; a Magistrate for the County of Gloucester, situate at Littledean in the said County, with Intent him the said Mr. Pyrke to murder and kill; which said Slugs or other Pieces of Lead passed close to a Bed which was in the said Chamber, and in which the said Mr. Pyrke usually sleeps.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more the said Offenders, (except the Person or Persons who actually so fired the said Two Guns or either of them) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty does hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon Conviction.
